Tuition Fee Support for Students under the Kyushu University Program for Leading Graduate Schools

August 20, 2013
Presidential Regulation

1. Purpose

Tuition fee support shall be provided for excellent students selected for the Kyushu University Program for Leading Graduate Schools (hereinafter referred to as the "Program"; those students shall be referred to as "Program Students") in order to reduce their financial burden and enable them to concentrate in research and study activities.

2. Amount of support

100,000 yen shall be paid as tuition fee support per student each academic year.

3. Period of support

Support shall be available up to the standard duration of study of a doctoral course provided for in Article 2, paragraphs (1) and (2) of the General Regulations of Graduate Schools of Kyushu University (Kyushu University Regulation No. 3 of 2004; hereinafter referred to as the "General Regulations").

4. Eligibility requirements

Tuition fee support shall not be provided for:

- (i) Japanese Government (Monbukagakusho: MEXT) Scholarship Students;
- (ii) foreign students who receive a scholarship for the tuition fee from the government agencies of their countries or who receive a tuition waiver as personnel dispatched by foreign governments;
- (iii) students appointed as research fellows of the Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (excluding DC1 and DC2 students);
- (iv) students who receive a scholarship or the like from other organizations and are not allowed to receive financial assistance from any organizations other than those;
- (v) students who are taking leave from school (limited to those whose leave continues during the entire period of the payment academic year), or who have withdrawn from school or who have been removed from the school register;
- (vi) students who have died;
- (vii) students who have been subject to disciplinary action;

- (viii) students whose academic achievement or whose character and conduct is judged to be poor or bad by the committee, etc. in charge of planning, operation, etc. of the Program (hereinafter referred to as the "Committee, etc."); or
- (ix) students who cease to be enrolled in the Program as Program Students.

5. Determination of recipients

After the person responsible for the Program confirms whether the candidates for Program Students satisfy the eligibility requirements and the Committee, etc. conducts screening of the candidates, the Student Support Committee shall determine the recipients.

6. Payment method

Tuition fee support shall be paid by bank transfer to the account held and designated by the recipient; however, the tuition fee support shall not be paid if, during the period after the determination of the recipient as referred to in 5 above until the time of payment of tuition fee support, it is found that the student falls under any of the categories prescribed in 4 above.

7. Others

- (1) Program Students shall not be precluded from applying for exemption from the tuition fee as provided for in Article 43, paragraph (3) of the General Regulations.
- (2) A review of the tuition fee support scheme shall be made by Academic Year 2018.
- (3) The President may reduce the amount or stop the payment of tuition fee support depending on the budget or other circumstances.

8. Administration of affairs

Affairs concerning tuition fee support for students under the Kyushu University Program for Leading Graduate Schools shall be administered by the Student Affairs Department, with the cooperation of the divisions of the Administrative Bureau and the Administrative Office.

Note

This Presidential Regulation shall enter into effect as of August 20, 2013.
